

2015 Participant Report – International Credit Mobility (Erasmus+ Key Action 1)

Fields marked with * are mandatory.

1 Purpose of the Participant Report

---

This final report on your mobility experience will provide the EU's Erasmus+ Programme with valuable information which will benefit both future participants and contribute to the continued improvement of the programme. We are grateful for your co-operation in filling out the questionnaire.

All personal data mentioned in this form will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the European Union institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. This report, once submitted, will be accessible to the coordinating institutions, their National Agencies and the European Commission. More details in Specific Privacy statement.

Please make sure you have the information of your Learning Agreement, Grant Agreement and Transcript of Records (if applicable) with you BEFORE you start filling in this report.

The term "course" used in this participant report should be understood as meaning the more general term "educational component" used in the Learning Agreement.

4 Academic Recognition

* 4.1 Was your Learning Agreement signed by all parties before the start of the mobility?

Learning Agreement: a binding agreement between the student, the sending and the receiving institution, including a group of educational components that the student needs to complete at the receiving institution and that will be recognised by the sending institution upon his/her return from the mobility period

- Yes, all parties signed it before the start
- No, some parties signed it after the start
- The learning agreement was never signed

* 4.2 If no, who signed after the start of your mobility period?

Multiple answers are possible.

- I (the student) did
- The sending institution did
- The receiving institution did

* 4.3 Was your Learning Agreement changed during your mobility period?

- Yes
- No

* 4.4 Why was it changed?

Multiple answers are possible.

- I extended my stay abroad
- The courses I selected initially were not available
- The courses I selected initially were in a different language than foreseen in the course catalogue or the language was not specified in the course catalogue
- I decided to change the courses initially selected
- The receiving institution required some changes
- Conflicts in the timetable
- Other

* 4.5 Did you manage to agree on the changes with the sending and receiving institutions within seven weeks from the start of the semester?

- Yes
- No

* 4.6 Do you expect to successfully complete all the educational components at the receiving institution as specified in the final version of the Learning Agreement (Table A and, if applicable, A2 of the official template)?

- Yes
- No

* 4.7 What might be the reasons for not successfully completing the above-mentioned educational components?

Multiple answers are possible.

- I will not take some or all exams
- I will not pass some or all exams
- The course and grade are not relevant for my degree programme
- I do not need recognition
- The language level of the course is too high
- Personal fear to receive a bad grade or fail
- The exams are taking place later than my planned departure
- I do not feel appropriately prepared
- I started the course too late
- Other

* 4.8 Will you, according to your Learning Agreement, gain academic recognition from your sending institution for your period abroad?

Following successful completion of the components described in Table A (i.e. study programme at the receiving institution) of the Learning Agreement, the sending institution:

- recognises all the credits specified in Table B (i.e. recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement, without the need to take any further courses or exams. (Full recognition)
  - does not recognise some of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (Partial recognition)
  - does not recognise any of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (No recognition)
- Full recognition
- Partial recognition
- No recognition

* 4.9 Will you have to take additional courses or exams at the sending institution for courses already evaluated at the receiving institution?

- Yes, for all courses
- Yes, for some courses
- No

*4.10 What do you expect might be the main obstacles to full recognition?

Following successful completion of the components described in Table A (i.e. study programme at the receiving institution) of the Learning Agreement, the sending institution:

- recognises all the credits specified in Table B (i.e. recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement, without the need to take any further courses or exams. (Full recognition)
- does not recognise some of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (Partial recognition)
- does not recognise any of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (No recognition)

Multiple answers are possible.

- Course content (or part of it) as agreed in the final version of the Learning Agreement (Table B and, if applicable B2 of the official template) might not be accepted by the sending institution upon return
- Number of credits recognised might be different from the one agreed in the final version of the Learning Agreement (Table B and, if applicable, B2 of the official template)
- Problems with grade conversion
- Problems with receiving the Transcript of Records from the receiving institution (Table C of the official template)
- Professor(s) at my sending institution might not give their approval
- I will decide not to have some courses recognised
- Other

*4.11 What do you expect might be the main obstacles to full recognition?

Following successful completion of the components described in Table A (i.e. study programme at the receiving institution) of the Learning Agreement, the sending institution:

- recognises all the credits specified in Table B (i.e. recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement, without the need to take any further courses or exams. (Full recognition)
- does not recognise some of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (Partial recognition)
- does not recognise any of the credits specified in Table B (recognition at the sending institution) of the final version of the Learning Agreement. (No recognition)

Multiple answers are possible.

- Course content (or part of it) as agreed in the final version of the Learning Agreement (Table B and, if applicable B2 of the official template) might not be accepted by the sending institution upon return
- Number of credits recognised might be different from the one agreed in the final version of the Learning Agreement (Table B and, if applicable, B2 of the official template)
- Problems with grade conversion
